Midnight Cry

- Exo 11:4 And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt:
- Mar 13:35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

Prediction by Jesus Christ

- Mat 24:3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying,
- and what shall be the sign of thy coming,
- and of the end of the world?

Probability of fulfillment?

- At the debate in Portland, Texas, that Earle Beach referred to in the foregoing article, my opponent applied probability to the prophecy-fulfillment argument. He mentioned several times how truly amazing it was that so many Old Testament prophecies had been fulfilled precisely and exactly in the life of Jesus of Nazareth. His premise was that over 300 such prophecies were made and later fulfilled. At one point when he was under cross-examination, he stated that the probability of any 50 of these prophecies being precisely fulfilled was 11 sextillion 250 quintillion to one. The figure written out would look like this:
11,250,000,000,000,000,000,000.

CASHLESS SOCIETY

CAN CRIME BE CONQUERED
BY ELIMINATING CASH?

"The benefits of replacing cash... would be incalculable. No cash to smuggle. The sale of illegal drugs would stop since no one would want a record of the transaction. The spread of AIDS would be curtailed as drug use fades away. The cost of government would go down as would the cost of private business. Tax evasion--payment in cash to avoid sales tax--(or failure) to report cash income--would cease. The national debt could be reduced. Stolen items could not be sold without a trace. Personal security would be assured. Little old ladies could walk in the park again.
